

“§ 763. Certificate of honorable service of temporary members

“In recognition of the service of temporary members of the Reserve during World War II, the Secretary may upon request issue an appropriate certificate of honorable service in lieu of a certificate of disenrollment issued to any person following disenrollment under honorable conditions from service as a temporary member during the period from December 7, 1941, to July 1, 1946, both dates inclusive. Issuance of a certificate of honorable service to any person under this section does not entitle him to any rights, privileges, or benefits under any law of the United States.”

(b) The analysis of chapter 21 of title 14, United States Code, is amended by inserting following

“762. Women’s Reserve”

the following:

“763. Certificate of honorable service of temporary members.”

AN ACT

To amend the District of Columbia Unemployment Compensation Act, as amended.

September 27, 1962
[H. R. 12762]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) section 3(c) (4) (i) of the District of Columbia Unemployment Compensation Act, approved August 28, 1935 (49 Stat. 946), as amended (sec. 46-303, D.C. Code), is amended by striking out the period at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof a colon and the following: “Provided, That for the calendar year 1963, and for each calendar year thereafter, any employer who is subject to this Act by virtue of the amendment of section 1(b) (5) (G) of this Act by the Act of March 30, 1962, and who has not been subject to this Act for a sufficient period to meet this requirement, may qualify for a rate less than the standard rate if his account could have been charged with benefit payments throughout a lesser period but, in no event, less than the twelve consecutive calendar months ending on the computation date (as herein defined) for that calendar year.”

57 Stat. 106.

Ante, p. 46.

(b) Section 3(c) (5) of such Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: “The Board shall compute rates for the second six months of 1963 for all employers first acquiring the necessary twelve months’ benefit experience under section 3(c) (4) (i) on the computation date June 30, 1963. Such rates shall be based upon such employer’s experience in the payment of contributions and benefits charged against his account through June 30, 1963, prior to the crediting of his account with trust fund interest. All employers issued a rate for the second six months of 1963, under this subsection, shall have a computation date of September 30, 1963, for the calendar year 1964.”
